

BIO:

Jesca Hoop is an American singer-songwriter and guitarist, a Californian who is now an adopted daughter of Manchester. Her career has spanned four albums of finely crafted song writing, sung from a unique intelligence and an unparalleled voice, culminating in 2017's hugely acclaimed 'Memories are Now'.

Having spent much of the last eighteen months on tour, Jesca is currently working with producer John Parish (PJ Harvey, This is the Kit, Aldous Harding) on her next collection of songs. With her much anticipated follow up to 'Memories are Now' set for release in the summer of 2019,
